environments with aim of creating sound/music that evokes feelings that remind the listener about the mysterious beauty of nature. By performing such music and narrating the unique stories of such musical pieces, it gives nature a unique place in the mind of humanity and new way of appreciating nature.

Enzamba Africa Band. (Omukuli band).

This is an arm of the organization that deals with the creative performance, ensemble, film and showcasing of unique forms of expressions of art, fashion and music. As a way to support the performers of art we package and sale performances. Think about it like a restaurant where you find a menu and order for fish and rice or a cup of coffee because you don't have a lot of time, at Enzamba Africa you can ask for a Bwola dance baked with some jazz and Bakisimba Ganda music or simply sounds of birds and a flute as you enjoy a cup of coffee in the savannah. Enzamba Africa band is the arm of the organization that deals with the performing arts.

Objectives

- To use music as a tool for the conservation of endangered forms of species, flora and cultures.
- To preserve, perform, protect and archive traditional intellectual property for the current and future generations.
- To diversify and offer new cultural tourism memorable experiences for both local and international tourists.
- To use the creative arts as a voice for the voiceless through promoting conservation art, films and music.
